Dear Mr. Baker:

I wanted to take this opportunity to tell you how pleased I was to see the announcement a few weeks ago, regarding your appointment as Chief of Staff. It is obvious you have your work cut out for you, but I am positive you will be very successful in the task. You have a combination of great intelligence, length experience, tact and monumental charm -- an unbeatable combination!

I finally had to retire my "BELLE OF AMHERST" project last year .. with very mixed emotions. The one good thing about theater is that it can always be "revived". I don't know whether you may recall, but I had written to you further about the Judy Garland project, and we have decided to go non-profit and apply for grant funding to try and get it produced this coming season .. I believe funds were applied for through the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts -- so please cross your inveterate fingers for us, in that regard.

It appears likely that I will be cast as the governess in "THE INNOCENTS", sometime this fall, in Chicago -- and, will continue to hope that some trip to Chicago may allow you to see me perform, at some point.

Again, my sincere congratulations and best wishes to you in this new undertaking. You're "in the White House now", Howard Baker!

With Kind Regards,

Lynn Goldblatt

Dear Howard:

A lot of water has gone over the dam since you entered politics at the University of Tennessee. You have performed admirably in each of your previous undertakings for the citizens of the Tennessee Valley. Your present endeavor for our country is by far the most awesome and important of your career. I am confident your outstanding abilities, your devotion to our country, and your deep understanding of our form of government will be of immeasurable assistance to the President in restoring faith in America throughout the world.

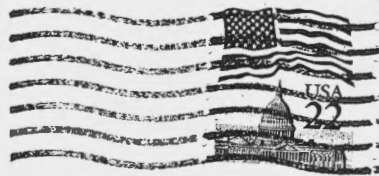

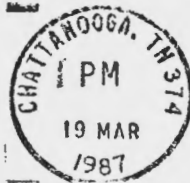

Over the past ten days I have talked to people from Florida to Tennessee. They, without exception, share my enthusiasm of your appointment.

Congratulations! Thank you for accepting the assignment even though I am disappointed that you have ruled out the presidency.

Fraternally,
